THE CUBS OF CHICAGO BASE BALL CHAMPIONS

The Fourth Successive Victory Over Detroit Settled the Matter

The American Leaguers Failed to Send a Man Across the Plate While the Visitors Scored Twice in the First Two Innings.

Detroit, Oct. 12.—The Chicago National League baseball team this afternoon at Bennett Park won the championship, defeating the Detroit American League team by a score of 2 to 0. It was the fourth successive victory of the Chicago team in as many days. Taking advantage of every slip made by the local players, and running bases cleverly, they scored two runs in the first two innings, while the Detroit team did not succeed in getting even one man over the plate.

The routers who followed the Chicago team from the Windy City, swarmed down on the diamond when the ninth inning closed and showered the team with congratulations. Then several hundred formed in a line and marched down Michigan Avenue, headed by a band, cheering and singing in celebration of the victory.

It was a disappointment today for the local team in more ways than one. The weather was raw and cold, entirely unfit for baseball. The official count of the attendance was 7,370. The temperature was below 50 degrees and a raw wind swept across the field, throughout the game. The sun broke through the clouds only once and then but for a few minutes.

Mullin and Brown both pitched but the Chicago team received the stronger support from his team mates. Brown was also steadier than Mullin, giving but one base on balls to Mullin's three, one of which developed into a run in the first inning. There was missing from the play of the Detroit team again, this afternoon, the dash and vim which carried them to the top of the American League and won the pennant for them.

The locals had a man on third base, but twice during the game, and each time Brown held the batter safely. In an effort to check the stealing of bases by Chicago, Manager Jennings sent Catcher Archer to relieve Mullin, but the Chicago men succeeded in stealing four bases off of him, the stolen bases figuring materially in the scoring of both runs. Jones and Coughlin succeeded in stealing bases this afternoon, off of Kling, whose throwing to bases has aided so largely in Chicago's victory.

Chicago scored in the opening inning. Slagle waited for bases on balls. Shreckard sent a fly to Jones and Howard struck out. With two out, Slagle dashed for the second and was

San Francisco, Oct. 12.—The campaign of Mayor Taylor and District Attorney Langdon for reelection was formally opened tonight in Dreamland Rink the occasion being the first mass meeting under the auspices of the democratic party and Good Government league. The large auditorium was packed to overflowing and much enthusiasm was displayed. Taylor and Langdon and other candidates addressed the large gathering.

Mayor Taylor in his address declared if reelected he would continue with all his power to assist in the work of rebuilding San Francisco and adding to her prosperity. Langdon said: "The campaign against graft and corruption in the city is begun and the people must decide whether it is to go on. The work is not completed. Shall it be abandoned now by the command of the people?"

PEACE TALK AT LUNCHEON

Another Japanese Says
There Can Be No War

None of the Thinking
Classes of Japan Are Thinking of It.

New York, Oct. 12.—Considerable about peace and trade and little about war was said at a luncheon given by Judge E. H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel Corporation in honor of Baron R. Mitsu, head of the great Mitsu company in Japan and credited with being the richest man in the empire. The luncheon took place at the Lawyers' Club.

Judge Gary said that Baron Mitsu gave him to understand that with Manager Matsuda of the New York branch, he represented the Japanese government. He is ex-officio adviser of the present Japanese cabinet in terms of finance. The baron assured Judge Gary that all talk of war was foolishness; that the thinking class in his country realized that nothing intervened between the governments to warrant any bluster about fighting.

COPPER IS ALL RIGHT.

One Will Be When the Demand
Catches Up With the Supply.

Salt Lake, Oct. 12.—Daniel Guggenheim, the head of the American Smelting and Refining company, arrived in Salt Lake this afternoon on a tour of inspection of the company's plants in the west. Guggenheim says the recent curtailment of the copper output is the natural outgrowth of the fact that the world was doing about 5 per cent too much business for the money it has.

He does not anticipate serious hard times and declares that as soon as business shrinks to a par with the amount of capital to be invested the financial situation will be relieved. Copper, he said, is as good as ever. As soon as money is freer the demand for copper will be as great as ever.

MEXICAN'S END AT RAY CAMP

He Forced Officer Lew
Mickey to Kill Him

Two Fatal Shots Were Fired in the Flash of a Dagger.

Ray, Ariz., Oct. 12.—(Special.)—As a result of attempting to take a prisoner from an officer at Ray camp, one man Marcus Toscano is dead, another will probably serve a term in the penitentiary, and Deputy Sheriff Lew Mickey is alive today only because of his quickness in a handling a gun.

About 11:45 last night Officer Mickey was set upon by two other Mexicans, Marcus Toscano and a companion who attempted to release the prisoner. During the scuffle Mickey knocked both men down and proceeded to lock up his prisoner. He had gone about fifty feet when he heard two men running after him. Hastily drawing his gun he turned and was met by Toscano who made a murderous lunge at him with a large dagger which just missed him but cut his belt in two.

The blow was delivered with such force that Toscano turned partly around, and as he did so Mickey fired, hitting him in the left side, a second time he turned and again Mickey fired, this time hitting him in the shoulder. Toscano reeled and staggered a few feet and dropped. During the fight the prisoner whom the officer was arresting escaped. Toscano's companion also ran but was followed by Mickey who soon caught him and locked him up. He will be tried for resisting an officer and is liable to serve a term in the penitentiary.

Toscano was picked up by some men and placed on a mattress awaiting the arrival of Dr. Edwin Ward who was immediately sent for. Toscano's fatal ending is the result of his revengeful spirit. Early the day before he was arrested by Officer Mickey for carrying concealed weapons, a murderous looking dagger with a twelve-inch blade being taken from him. For this offense he was fined $60 which was paid by his friends.

During the day he was in an ugly mood around the camp and watched Mickey's every movement with the intention of getting revenge in which he probably would have been successful had not the officer been able to handle his gun so quickly.

THE FLEET'S ITINERARY

The Cruiser Advance Guard
of the Battleships

Its Departure Yesterday
From Hampton Roads On Its Long Journey.

Washington, Oct. 12.—The president's policy of strengthening the defenses of the Pacific coast was practically inaugurated today by the departure from Hampton Roads of a special service squadron consisting of the armored cruisers, Tennessee and Washington on the long voyage about 12,000 miles around the coast of South America to Magdalena Bay where the two ships will go through the regular naval maneuvers in company with the new armored cruisers California and South Dakota. The four ships are of the same class. The California and South Dakota, built by the Union Iron Works of San Francisco are now in that vicinity. It is expected that the South Dakota will be ready for active service when the squadron arrives on the Pacific coast.

Rear Admiral Sorensen commands the special service squadron. Captain Thomas B. Howard recently in command of the cruiser Olympia is in command of the Tennessee and Captain Austin M. Knight formerly president of the naval board of ordinance is in command of the Washington. According to the itinerary the squadron will proceed direct to Trinidad. A stop of four days will be made at that port, when the squadron will proceed to Monte Vide where it will be due the 13th prox. Seven days also will be spent in that port. The next stopping place will be Punta Arenas near the entrance to Magellan Straits. There the vessels will remain three days before proceeding through the straits to Callao Peru where they are scheduled to arrive on December 7. One week will be spent at that port in order to permit a visit to Lima the Peruvian capital. The last leg of the cruise will be from Callao to Magdalena Bay where the vessels will engage in target practice and maneuvers.

This cruise marks the beginning of extensive movements of warships from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast which movement includes the fleet of sixteen battleships commanded by Rear Admiral Evans and a large flotilla of torpedo boats. All the vessels will follow practically the course adopted for the special service squadron.

NO BETTING, NO RACING.

ONE SURVIVOR OF THE CREW

The Foundering of a Steamer On Lake Superior

The Second and Last
Trip of a New Steel
Freighter.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich. Oct. 12.—Bound down from the head of the lakes, on the second trip she has made since she was launched at Lorain, Ohio, on August 17th, the fine steel freighter Cypris, 400 feet long, owned by the Lackawanna Transportation company of Cleveland, foundered yesterday in Lake Superior, off Deer Park taking down twenty-two members of her crew. The second mate C. J. Pitt washed ashore lashed to a life raft, is the only person alive of the ship's crew, and his condition is so critical that he has only been able to gasp out the name of the sunken ship and the fact that all lives were lost. Pitt is suffering from his dreadful experience in the water in addition to his buffeting by the breakers. Until he recovers sufficiently to talk, the story of the wreck and the exact cause of the ship's foundering will not be definitely known.

Deer Park is about 30 miles south of Grand Marais. Several bodies from the wreck have been washed ashore and two are known to be those of the first mate and watchman. Marine men suggest possible explanations of the foundering, the theories being that the engines became disabled, the plates opened and the ship sprung a leak or that the hatches may not have been securely battened permitting the steamer to fill with water from the waves washing over the decks.

THERE'S SLENDER HOPE FOR AUSTRIAN EMPEROR

The Physicians of Francis Joseph,
However, Cannot Predict a Favorable Outcome.

Vienna, Oct. 12.—The condition of Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria-Hungary took a turn for the worse at noon today, and at a late hour tonight the symptoms of inflammation of the lungs had increased.

Taken as a whole the day cannot be said to have been one of progress, although the physicians who examined his majesty at 1 o'clock, declared that the fever had abated and that the condition of the patient was unchanged.

At 11 o'clock the emperor was quiet and fell asleep. He is able to take sufficient nourishment. The physicians hope that a turn for the better may occur soon, yet so long as the fever symptoms and inflammation continue they dare not predict a favorable outcome.

TELEGRAPHERS' STRIKE LEFT WITH THE LOCALS

Commissioner Neill Fails to Secure Any Concessions for the Operators.

President Small Describing the Hopelessness of the Strike Recommends That the Fate of It Be Left to a Vote.

New York, Oct. 12.—Charles P. Neill, United States commissioner of labor, was in conference with the officials of the Western Union today making a final effort to ascertain if there was any chance to make terms for the operators still out on strike. All phases of the subject were considered but he was assured that the position of the company would not be changed under any circumstances. Neill's call was on account of the receipt of a number of petitions and resolutions of labor councils asking for intervention.

SMALL SURRENDERS.

He Advises Locals to Abandon the Strike.

New York, Oct. 12.—Following the visit to this city of Labor Commissioner Neill, President Small of the Telegraphers' union took decisive measures to end the strike. He sent the following telegram to all the leading cities of the country: "Prominent New Yorkers have appealed to me to call the strike off. All efforts at negotiations have been exhausted and the companies' officials say they will fight to a finish. Our treasury is depleted and no more funds are available. Requests for relief from all sides are heavy and urgent and the general assembly cannot meet them. The strike having been ordered without the president's sanction, I recommend that the locals vote on the proposition."

A meeting of the New York local will be held tomorrow, when Small's recommendation will be discussed. Daniel Russell, chairman of the strikers' board of strategy, said tonight, that Small had said nothing to the members of the local board regarding the recommendation, either before or after the same was made public. Russell said he had protested against the strike in the beginning, but at the same time he had said that if it was declared he would support it to the end. This promise he said, he had kept and would never ask the strikers to go to work unless they receive material concessions.

Percy Thomas, former deputy president of the general body, issued a statement tonight in the course whereof he said: "We have $15,000 in the treasury of the general assembly. I am advising all locals not to declare the strike off, but to continue the fight with greater energy than heretofore. If we were right on the first day of the strike, we are right now. It is better to starve than to surrender."
